This I Believe

Helen Leonard

God has made his presence known to me on many occasions—this I know! Sometimes He guides me, sometimes He answers my prayers, and sometimes He uses me to answer someone else's prayers. The latter experience is a humbling experience and I feel honored and blessed that I can do God's will to help others. My quest is to better understand the mysteries of God's world, to learn about His plan for me and for humankind. I come to church to unravel the mysteries through God's Word in scripture. I worship to honor Him and I do good works to please Him and help me feel the presence of the Holy Spirit in my life. And so I continue to read and to listen to God's Word, I sing and worship as I learn about God's world and His plan for me.
